Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame

Players

The Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame is dedicated to the recognition of extraordinary contributions and accomplishments in the game of golf in Saskatchewan. The purpose is to provide role models and icons for upcoming generations of golfers in Saskatchewan while setting standards for them to aspire to. Honoured members, including amateur and professional golfers and builders of the sport, will be inducted annually starting in 2010.

A committee comprised of representatives from Golf Saskatchewan, the Professional Golfers Association of Saskatchewan, the Saskatchewan Turfgrass Association and individuals appointed by the presidents of the three organizations or their designates is responsible for reviewing nominations and selecting inductees.

Once elected to the Hall of Fame, nominees are officially inducted at a special ceremony conducted by the Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame. The honoured member's portrait is then enshrined at the Golf Saskatchewan office and available for viewing on the virtual Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame available through the Golf Saskatchewan website.

4. Be an amateur or professional golfer during the period of accomplishments; and
