

Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame

510 Cynthia Street
Saskatoon, SK S7L 7K7
www.golfsaskatchewan.org
blee@golfsaskatchewan.org

For Immediate Release:
August 8, 2011

SASKATCHEWAN GOLF HALL OF FAME 2011 INDUCTEES ANNOUNCED

SASKATOON, SK — The Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame announces today its second induction class. The inductees include two players and three builders with achievements and contributions to the sport of golf spanning throughout the rich history of golf in Saskatchewan. The second inductee's class to the Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame include:

Players Category

Patricia A. Lawson (Pat), Saskatoon, SK
Doug Lynwood Mader, Lumsden, SK

Builder Category

Danny Jutras, Prince Albert, SK
William George Wallace (Bill), St. John's, NFLD
Terrence Everett Meier (Terry), Regina, SK

The second induction ceremony will be held on Saturday, October 1st at the Wascana Country Club in Regina. Tickets for the event will be made available to the public after August 22nd.

ABOUT THE SASKATCHEWAN GOLF HALL OF FAME

The Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame was established by the Saskatchewan Tuffgrass Association, CPGA of Saskatchewan and Golf Saskatchewan to recognize the achievements of players and builders of golf in Saskatchewan. Sponsorship opportunities are available and ticket information for the event will be available near the end of August. Individuals and or businesses wishing to make donations to the Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame may also be eligible to receive a tax receipt. For more information about the Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame, including sponsorship opportunities and or tickets for the induction banquet, please visit www.golfsaskatchewan.org.

ABOUT THE WASCANA COUNTRY CLUB

The Wascana Country Club is proud to facilitate the second induction ceremony of the Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame. The Wascana Country Club is one of Saskatchewan's finest private golf clubs and Regina's Premier Golf and Country Club Experience. For nearly a century, the Wascana Country Club has been an integral part of Regina, proving itself as a haven for some of the city's best, and most distinguished golfers. Since our doors first opened in 1911, we have evolved into one of Saskatchewan's premier golf courses. Club members have meticulously continued its long-standing tradition of golf excellence by maintaining the high standards that continue to bring Regina golfers back, year after year. Located along Wascana Creek, it is carefully landscaped to provide a beautiful, yet secluded area. For more information on Wascana Country Club, please visit www.wascanacountryclub.com.

ABOUT THE CANADIAN PROFESSIONAL GOLFERS' ASSOCIATION OF SASKATCHEWAN

The Canadian Professional Golfers' Association is a member based non-profit organization representing over 3,500 golf professionals across Canada. The Association was founded in 1911 which makes it the oldest Professional Golf Association in North America and the 2nd oldest PGA in the world. The Saskatchewan Zone has 110 members spread across the Province from La Ronge to Estevan, Lloydminster to Yorkton. For information on the CPGA of Saskatchewan, please visit www.cpgasask.com.

ABOUT THE SASKATCHEWAN TURFGRASS ASSOCIATION (STA)

The STA encourages and promotes research in the turfgrass industry, as well as the exchange of ideas among turfgrass professionals. The STA sponsors seminars in the spring and fall at a minimal cost to attract all the turf managers in the province. The STA aids in the advance of research in the area of turf culture and facilitating a practical knowledge of turf operations while participating in the funding and developing of research projects involving the turfgrass industry in Saskatchewan. The STA currently has more than 230 members in the province. For information on the STA, please visit www.saskturf.com.

ABOUT THE GOLF SASKATCHEWAN (GS)

Golf Saskatchewan is the governing body of amateur golf in Saskatchewan, representing more than 14,000 members at 107 clubs across the province. GS's mission is to grow participation in, and passion for the sport while upholding the integrity of the game. GS conducts programs and services to serve golfers in Saskatchewan. Athlete and Sport Development, CN Future Links, order of merit tours, rules of golf, amateur status, handicapping and course rating are only some of the initiatives the association leads for golf in Saskatchewan. In addition, GS annually conducts Saskatchewan's amateur championships. For information on the GS, please visit www.golfsaskatchewan.org.

For more information on this announcement, please contact:

Brian Lee

Executive Director of Golf Saskatchewan

Secretary of the Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame

Tel: 306.975.0841 | Cell: 306.291.5260

blee@golfsaskatchewn.org