

Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame

510 Cynthia Street
Saskatoon, SK S7L 7K7
www.golfsaskatchewan.org
blee@golfsaskatchewan.org

For Immediate Release:
July 24, 2013

SASKATCHEWAN GOLF HALL OF FAME 2013 INDUCTEES

SASKATOON, SK — The Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame (SGHF) announces today its fourth induction class. The inductees include three players and one builder with achievements and contributions to the sport of golf spanning throughout the rich history of golf in Saskatchewan.

Each year our province's top players and builders add to their own achievements forever being compared to the legacies of players who have competed at the highest level or worked to enhance the game over the last one hundred years.

The fourth inductee's class to the Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame include:

Players Category

Ron Dosdall, Meadow Lake
Ron Stewart, Prince Albert
Jeff Makohon, Heath TX, USA

Builder Category

Jack McDonald, Kamloops

The fourth induction ceremony will be held on Saturday, September 28th at the Riverside Country Club in Saskatoon. Tickets for the event will be $75.00 and will be made available for the purchase from the Golf Saskatchewan website.

ABOUT THE SASKATCHEWAN GOLF HALL OF FAME

The Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame has been established to recognize the achievements of players and builders of golf in Saskatchewan. Sponsorship opportunities are available and ticket information for the event will be available near the end of August. For more information about the Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame, including sponsorship opportunities and or tickets for the induction banquet, please visit www.golfsaskatchewan.org.

ABOUT RIVERSIDE COUNTRY CLUB

Riverside Country Club is proud to facilitate the fourth induction ceremony of the Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame. The Riverside County Club is one of Saskatchewan's finest private golf clubs as well as one of Saskatoon's Premier Golf and Country Club Experience. Since opening in 1912, the Club has been dedicated to maintaining an unsurpassed tradition of excellence in service and sport. Riverside Golf Club has hosted a number of national events, including, two Canadian Amateur Men's Championships, two Canadian Women's Amateur Championships, two Senior Canadian Men's Championships, a Canadian Mid-Amateur Men's Championship, a Canadian Junior Men's Amateur Championship. Additionally, in 2008, the Club hosted the 2008 Mike Weir Charity Golf Drive for Kids, benefitting the Children's Health and Hospital Foundation. Located along the riverbank, the rolling fairways and mature trees are simply breathtaking. These views illuminate why Riverside Country Club has been considered one of Canada's most scenic and challenging courses. For more information on Riverside Country Club, please visit www.riversideecc.ca.

ABOUT THE PROFESSIONAL GOLFERS' ASSOCIATION OF SASKATCHEWAN (PGA of SK)

The Canadian Professional Golfers' Association is a member based non-profit organization representing over 3,500 golf professionals across Canada. The Association was founded in 1911 which makes it the oldest Professional Golf Association in North America and the 2nd oldest PGA in the world. The Saskatchewan Zone has 110 members spread across the Province from La Ronge to Estevan, Lloydminster to Yorkton. For information on the PGA of Saskatchewan, please visit www.cpgasask.com.

ABOUT THE SASKATCHEWAN TURFGRASS ASSOCIATION (STA)

The STA encourages and promotes research in the turfgrass industry, as well as the exchange of ideas among turfgrass professionals. The STA sponsors seminars in the spring and fall to all willing turf managers in the province. The STA aids in the advance of research in the area of turf culture and facilitating a practical knowledge of turf operations while participating in the funding and developing of research projects involving the turfgrass industry in Saskatchewan. The STA currently has more than 230 members in the province. For information on the STA, please visit www.saskturf.com.

ABOUT THE GOLF SASKATCHEWAN (GS)

Golf Saskatchewan is the governing body of amateur golf in Saskatchewan, representing approximately 14,000 members at 104 clubs across the province. GS's mission is to grow participation in, and passion for the sport while upholding the integrity of the game. GS conducts programs and services to serve golfers in Saskatchewan. Athlete and Sport Development, CN Future Links, Order of Merit Tours, Rules of Golf, Amateur Status, Handicapping and Course Rating are only some of the initiatives the association leads for golf in Saskatchewan. In addition, GS annually conducts Saskatchewan's Amateur Championships. For information on the GS, please visit www.golfsaskatchewan.org.

For more information on this announcement, please contact:

Brian Lee

Secretary of the Saskatchewan Golf Hall of Fame | Executive Director of Golf Saskatchewan

Tel: 306.975.0841 | Cell: 306.291.5260

Email: blee@golfsaskatchewn.org