Golf Saskatchewan Amateur Code of Conduct

- b) disqualification from future Golf Saskatchewan sanctioned tournament(s) or event(s),
- c) the suspension of the player's membership in Golf Saskatchewan indefinitely.

In the event of an alleged violation of the Code of Conduct, the Golf Saskatchewan Tournament & Rules Committee will investigate the allegation within 30 days of the incident and, if it deems there are sufficient grounds to warrant disqualification from future Golf Saskatchewan tournaments and/or events, or suspension of Golf Saskatchewan membership, may make such a recommendation to the Golf Saskatchewan Board of Directors, which will then deal with the recommendation in accordance with Sections 3.6 and 3.7 of the Golf Saskatchewan Bylaws. Any player who has been found guilty of a violation of the Code of Conduct will not be eligible for post-season honours.

Non-Compliance:

The Golf Saskatchewan Tournament Committee may impose penalties for Code of Conduct violations. All violations or infractions may be recorded, referred to the Golf Saskatchewan Disciplinary Committee for further investigation, and kept on file as part of a competitor's permanent record. Where deemed necessary a written letter of warning will be sent to the competitor, with a copy to her/his/their parent(s) or guardian(s) if applicable. The Disciplinary Committee may impose additional penalties or sanctions. In the event the Golf Saskatchewan Disciplinary Committee decides a suspension is warranted, the competitor and his/her parents or guardian (if applicable) will be advised of the suspension in writing. A competitor may appeal a Golf Saskatchewan Tournament Committee decision to the Golf Saskatchewan Disciplinary Committee. The competitor (and his/her parents or guardian, if applicable) will be notified of the date when the appeal will be heard. The Golf Saskatchewan Disciplinary Committee will review all submitted materials and presentations and then issue a written decision within 30 days of such a hearing. The decision of the Golf Saskatchewan Disciplinary Committee is final. Competitors are responsible for their own decisions and are encouraged to consult with Golf Saskatchewan or Golf Canada representatives or event organizers before undertaking any action or activity that may be considered a violation of the code of conduct.
